MINUTES by Victoria Dow

President Carl rang us to order at 12:34 and called upon Vic Abdala to give the invocation. Once that was done, President Carl had a confab with the microphone and then restarted things about 12:39 or so.

Visiting Rotarian John Saling (has anyone given him an honorary seat in our club yet?) introduced the following fellow visiting Rotarians: Frank Roya and Bill Hicks, both from WEGO. A number of folks brought guests today. Cathy Palmquist introduced her husband. Tim Phelps brought along Mat (?) and Dave Smut. Jim Gasho introduced Amos Bassett's wife Lois. Deb Ellenberg (busy lady) introduced Shannon Cassidy. Patty Jefferis introduced a complete stranger, Jeff Sommer.

Deb Ellenberg, with the able assistance of sometime WC Rotarian Jim Gasho, wished a happy birthday to the "visiting" Jeff Sommer (did you know he collects sneakers?). Sue Casso had birthday greetings for Lee Bunting.

John Schwab stood in for Annalie Lorgus to remind us that we have only one more week to purchase raffle tickets for the fine print on display these last weeks. Proceeds go to Polio Eradication and the drawing is next week.

John Saling announced that there are still opportunities to be a corporate sponsor for the District Golf Outing in June. A corporate sponsorship goes for $2500 and comes with great PR exposure for your company and the opportunity for your foursome to play the Chester Valley course. The Sunrise club and Gundaker are putting this golf outing together.

GM John Olszewski gave a Fruit Sale Update. The top team is still Jean Oakes' Juicy Fruities. In second place is Vic Abdala's team, the Big Squeeze, and Sid Rabin's Fruit Busters must have been selling like gangbusters to net third place this week. Sales are strong; participation by club members, however, is low at only 60%. Next Coach Karp reminded us that we're at the 2 minute warning, down by 4 points (how'd he figure that?), and no time outs left, meaning we gotta go for it to make the TD. Club goal is still $10K to go to CHAD.

The Pot o' Gold, drawn by someone affiliated with the beneficiary, was won by Trish Kotsay, who, however, failed to find the Queen In Question.

President Carl finished up by announcing that the club board has agreed to send up to five club members to the Rotary Leadership conference on March 1. If you are interested in attending please contact President Carl.
