SCOTT SCRIVNER gave us one last chili cook off update. T-shirts are $10. MIKE ALFONSI who quipped, "chili today, hot tamale", read the forecast. TERRY MCGRATH stated that trash pickup crews were needed for the chili cook off.

SPEAKERS REVIEW by Fran Luft

Betty Ann Flynn, Assistant District Governor inducted the following individuals into our Rotary Club: Esther Brown, Kia Scott, John Kurywchak, Seamus Lavin and Raoul Pagin. Please welcome are newest and most important members to our Rotary family. Congratulations!

Betty Ann acknowledged several of the club members: Bob Poole, Sue Casso, Charles Streitwieser, Steve Quigley and Carol Metzker. Our Rotary Club is the largest in the district with 152 members. There are 3 clubs in West Chester, 7 in Chester County. She wished the club well on the Chill Cookout to raise funds to eradicate polio. Betty Ann stated that the club does a great deal to help individuals all over the world- a project in Bangladesh and ovens in Guyana. Rotary club participates in a reading program in the schools in West Chester, ambassadorial scholarship, exchange student program, family day and the fruit sale - just to mention a few.

Betty Ann said that the Rotary Club of West Chester is a great club putting SERVICE ABOVE SELF.
